

IDS: Creativity and Culture

(Visual Arts)

Creativity and culture is an integrated humanities and fine arts major. In humanities, students explore the history and theory of literature, art, music and theatre. In fine arts, students work with award-winning writers, artists, musicians and directors to hone their skills in creative writing, drama, music or visual art. Learn more at uab.ca/AugPrograms

AUGUSTANA PROJECT-BASED CORE:

Learn the skills needed to succeed in university and create projects while gaining real working experience. Learn more and see courses at uab.ca/AugCore

AUIDS 101 (3 units, Fall)

The First-Year Seminar prepares students for university by teaching critical analysis, improving academic writing, fostering community involvement, and introducing career skills.

AUIDS 401 (6 units, Fall & Winter)

Students gain the skills and knowledge needed to work professionally with community partners, while reinforcing their ability to work collaboratively on a project. Students will also gain the skills and tools to market the knowledge acquired in their degree in competitive job markets.

*Your Academic Requirement Report in Bear Tracks shows your progress and provides complete details on your program. Not every student's path will be this linear. You may choose to take a lighter course load, take time off or participate in extracurriculars that will extend your program time. We recommend speaking to a student advisor about planning your degree. Learn more at uab.ca/AugSAS
