 - 1.04.01 If a Supervisor determines an inability to meet any term or condition of employment, based on the requirements of the funding agency, the Supervisor will contact the Provost. The Provost will notify the Union of the conflict with the Funding Agency.

The appointment is normally within five (5) years of completion of a doctoral degree or ten (10) years from the completion of a MD, DDS, or equivalent degree, unless prior approval by the Provost or designee is obtained to exceed these time limits.
- 7.02 Appointments are for a limited period of time, from a minimum of three (3) months to a maximum of five (5) years. This five-year (5) time limit may only be extended in writing by the Provost, or designee, due to circumstances requiring an interruption in the PDS Employee's research career.
- 7.03 A letter of appointment executed by the Appointing Officer shall be provided to the PDS Employee. - 7.05 A PDS Employee's appointment will automatically cease on the end date indicated in the Appointment Letter. In some instances, an appointment may be renewed provided that the PDS Employee still falls within the definition of a PDS Employee and that the renewal would not normally cause the aggregate duration of the appointments to exceed the total time limit of five (5) years. The renewal of the appointment will require a new appointment letter. When an appointment letter is renewed, the Supervisor will make every reasonable effort to provide the PDS Employee with at least six (6) weeks' notice.

- 7.06 The appointment shall be subject to a probationary period of three (3) months from the appointment start date. At any time during or at the end of this three (3) month period, the Appointing Officer, on the advice of the Supervisor, may terminate the appointment without cause. In this event, the PDS Employee will be provided with working notice or pay in lieu in accordance with Article 8.04 (a) and shall not be entitled to any other compensation.
- 7.07 If a PDS Employee is absent from their appointment for a period of seven (7) business days and has not contacted their Supervisor advising them of the reason for the absence, that shall constitute just cause for termination and the Appointing Officer may terminate the appointment without any notice or any pay or other compensation of any kind in lieu of notice.

- 8.04 Supervisor-Initiated Termination Without Cause: Where the Supervisor terminates the appointment prior to the stated expiration date, the PDS Employee will be provided with notice, pay in lieu of notice, or a combination of notice and pay in lieu based upon the following schedule:

- a) employment of less than two (2) years, notice or pay in lieu of notice of six (6) weeks;
 - b) employment of two (2) years, but less than three (3) years, notice or pay in lieu of notice of eight (8) weeks;
 - c) employment of three (3) - five (5)+ years, notice or pay in lieu of notice of ten (10) weeks;
- 8.05 Years of service for Article 8.04 will include any continuous employment as a PDS Employee for the Employer, including service in different PDS Employee positions or for different Supervisors. For purposes of determining continuous employment, any breaks of employment of less than four (4) months or leave taken pursuant to Article 15 (Leave Without Pay) will not create a break in service.

ARTICLE 9: WORKLOAD

The Parties recognize that the PDS Employee is primarily involved in research and scholarly activity. As such, there must be flexibility with respect to the hours of work to allow for the specific needs of research, scholarship, and the PDS Employee's individual needs. The Parties recognize that this arrangement is mutually beneficial for both PDS Employees and their Supervisors. Therefore, PDS Employees will manage their schedule in accordance with their responsibilities.

- 9.01 Upon commencement of the appointment, the PDS Employee and their Supervisor will convene a meeting to discuss the duties and expectations of the appointment and the PDS Employee's career objectives. Subsequent meetings will occur at least once per year, if requested by the PDS Employee.
- 9.02 The workload of a PDS Employee shall be fair and reasonable such that it enables the employee to maintain a healthy work/life balance. This should include recognition of the variable and unpredictable nature of the work, however, a PDS Employee will not normally be required to work beyond forty-four (44) hours per week.
- 9.03 Any PDS Employee who considers that their assigned workload does not support a healthy work/life balance shall have recourse to the Chair/ Dean and the Union for a workload review, whose decision shall be final and binding.
- 9.04 With the prior agreement of the Supervisor, a PDS Employee may undertake teaching responsibilities up to a maximum of one full course per term, which will be considered a distinct employment relationship and governed under a separate employment contract. To the extent that a PDS Employee does undertake teaching responsibilities, this Agreement does not apply to any matters related to the PDS Employee's teaching assignment.

ARTICLE 10: EVALUATION

- 10.01 The Parties recognize the benefit of ongoing performance feedback and agree that the purposes of evaluations are to assist PDS Employees in improving the quality of their work; assess the performance of PDS Employees; and document the work performed by the PDS Employee. Evaluations may also identify potential learning and development opportunities.

- 10.02 The Supervisor will conduct an evaluation every twelve (12) months during the period of the PDS Employee's appointment. At the conclusion of this evaluation, the Supervisor should consider whether an increase to the PDS Employee's wage is warranted, however, any wage increase is at the sole discretion of the Supervisor. The decision to grant or withhold a wage increase will not be subject to the Dispute Resolution Procedure unless the decision was arbitrary, discriminatory or made in bad faith.
- 10.03 Nearing the conclusion of a PDS Employee's appointment an additional meeting and final evaluation will be conducted if requested by the PDS Employee.
- 10.04 The results of any evaluation will be shared with the PDS Employee and discussed between the PDS Employee and their Supervisor. Any documented performance feedback will be included in the PDS Employee's Personnel File. A PDS Employee will be entitled to append their comments to any evaluation.
- 10.05 Any performance feedback documents are developmental in purpose and will not be considered part of the disciplinary process.

ARTICLE 11: ACADEMIC FREEDOM

- 11.01 The Parties agree that academic freedom is fundamental to the mandate of universities to discover and disseminate new knowledge, to educate students, and to enable free intellectual inquiry and exchange.
- 11.02 The Parties agree that PDS Employees are developing their potential as independent scholars. Their Supervisors are responsible for providing them with appropriate measures of intellectual independence and academic freedom. As members of the academic community, PDS Employees have the right to learn, to carry out research, to publish, to comment, to criticize, to examine, to question, to acquire and disseminate knowledge, to create, and to perform; all of these without deference to prescribed doctrine insofar as the PDS Employee abides by the duties and responsibilities of their appointment(s).
- 11.03 Academic freedom does not confer legal immunity, nor does it diminish the obligations of the PDS Employee to fulfill the duties and responsibilities of their appointments. When exercising academic freedom in accordance with this Article, PDS Employees are entitled to exercise or assert their rights of academic freedom without reprisal from their Supervisor.
- 11.04 In their capacity as researchers and scholars, PDS Employees shall not claim to speak on behalf of the University unless specifically authorized to do so. If there is likely to be confusion as to whether a PDS Employee is speaking on behalf of the Employer, the PDS Employee shall make clear that the views expressed are their own.

Both the Employer and PDS Employee are responsible for reporting overpayments or underpayments as soon as they become aware of the overpayment/underpayment. The University will correct underpayments of salary. Repayment schedules for PDS Employees will be based on the magnitude of the overpayment, length of time over which the error occurred, length of work time remaining, the taxation year and the impacts on the PDS Employee. The schedule will be mutually agreed to between the Supervisor and PDS Employee. Should the Parties not mutually agree the Dean will determine the repayment schedule.

- 17.01.02 "Policy Grievance" means a dispute over the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of the Agreement by the Employer or the Union that is not limited to a specific PDS Employee or a group of PDS Employees.
- 17.01.03 For the purpose of this article, "work days" means consecutive days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, or statutory holidays.
- 17.01.04 Time limits may be altered by mutual consent of the Parties.

17.02 Informal Resolution of Disputes

- 17.02.01 The Parties to a dispute will first make reasonable efforts to resolve the dispute through informal problem-solving.
- 17.02.02 PDS Employees and Supervisors are encouraged to resolve any dispute through one-on-one discussion to seek clarification and resolution. PDS Employees may seek guidance from the Union prior to speaking to their Supervisor. The discussion should take place within ten (10) work days of the time the PDS Employee should reasonably have become aware of the action or matters giving rise to a dispute and attempt to arrive at a mutually agreeable solution that is in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.
- 17.02.03 If a PDS Employee brings a dispute to the Supervisor, and the dispute is not resolved, the PDS Employee may advance their concerns to the Department Chair, and if not resolved, to the Dean.
- 17.02.04 If a dispute arises between representatives of the Union and the Employer over the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of the Agreement, the Parties will make a reasonable attempt to resolve the dispute by informal problem solving before formalizing the dispute as a grievance. Informal problem-solving between the Union and the Employer will normally involve the Provost (or designee), and any other Parties determined by the Provost (or designee) and the Union President.
- 17.02.05 A PDS Employee will not be subject to reprisals as a result of raising a concern provided that such concerns are not frivolous, malicious, or vexatious.

17.03 Grievances

- 17.03.01 The Union has the exclusive authority if it so chooses to file individual, group or policy grievances on behalf of a PDS Employee.
- 17.03.02 A formal grievance will be initiated in writing and will specify the details of the dispute, refer to the clause or clauses of the Agreement which are alleged to have been violated, and describe the desired resolution.
- 17.03.03 The formal grievance will be submitted to the Provost, with a copy to the Director, Faculty Relations and other Parties if relevant.
- 17.03.04 The formal grievance must be submitted within fifteen (15) work days of the date that the matters giving rise to the grievance are known or ought to have been known by the PDS Employee or the Union. This timeline applies regardless of the existence or progress of any informal resolution efforts, and may only be extended in accordance with Article 17.04.03.
- 17.03.05 The Provost (or designee) will convene a meeting involving representatives of the Employer and the Union within twenty (20) work days of receipt of the grievance. The participants will engage in an open, fair and balanced discussion of the issues, interests, options and potential solutions to the grievance. Additional meetings may be convened by the Provost (or designee) as required.
- 17.03.06 The Provost (or designee) will provide a written response to the grievance within twenty (20) work days of the final meeting.
- 17.03.07 Discussions, correspondence and agreements reached at this stage are confidential and without prejudice to the legal or contractual rights of the Parties, and any agreements shall be confirmed in writing.
- 17.03.08 If the decision of the Provost (or designee) fails to resolve the grievance, the Union may advance the grievance to arbitration in accordance with Article 18 by providing the Provost (or designee) with written notice within thirty (30) days following receipt of the Provost's (or designee) decision/response to the grievance.
- 17.03.09 The Provost may file grievances on behalf of the Employer. Such grievances will be submitted to the PDFA President (or designee) and processed in accordance with 18.03. The PDFA President will perform the equivalent role of the Provost in reviewing and responding to such grievances.
- 17.03.10 Mediation is an optional step prior to Arbitration, if mutually agreed to. Mediation will be in accordance with Article 17.05 Mediation.

17.04 Time Limits

- 17.04.01 In the event that the Party initiating an action under the foregoing procedures fails to follow the time limits described therein, the grievance will be deemed abandoned.
- 17.04.02 Where the Party receiving the grievance fails to respond in accordance with the time limits established therein, the grievance will advance to the next step.
- 17.04.03 Either Party may request an extension of the time limits, provided that such extension is requested prior to the expiry of the time allowed. Where such extension is requested, it will not be unreasonably denied.

17.05. Mediation

- 17.05.01 Upon mutual agreement of the Union and the Provost (or designee) the Parties may agree to mediate the grievance at any point of the grievance process.
- 17.05.02 The matters discussed in mediation are kept confidential and cannot subsequently be used by one Party against the other if mutual agreement is not reached. The discussions that take place during mediation are confidential and private; and information shared during the mediation process cannot be used against either Party after mediation has concluded, regardless of the outcome.
- 17.05.03 Any agreement reached by the Parties during the mediation will be in writing and will not create any precedent for future grievances or disputes.

ARTICLE 18: ARBITRATION

18.01 Grievance Arbitration

- 18.01.01 A matter referred to arbitration under this Article shall be heard by a single arbitrator except where the Employer and the Union agree to refer the matter to a three-person arbitration panel. Hereinafter all references to arbitrator shall be deemed to include an arbitration panel.
- 18.01.02 If a grievance is initiated by the Union, is properly considered in accordance with Article 17 and is not resolved, the Union will have sole authority to decide whether to refer the grievance to arbitration on behalf of the Union or one or more PDS Employees.
- 18.01.03 If a grievance is initiated by the Provost, is properly considered in accordance with Article 17 and is not resolved, the Provost may refer the unresolved grievance to arbitration on behalf of the Employer.

18.02 Arbitration Panel

- 18.02.01 a) In the case of a single arbitrator, the arbitrator shall be appointed by agreement of the Provost and the PDFA President.
- b) In the case of a three-person arbitration panel, each Party will select its nominee to the binding arbitration panel and will notify the other of its nominee within ten (10) work days of receipt of a referral to arbitration. The Provost and the PDFA President will jointly select a third person to serve as chair.
- c) If an agreement cannot be reached in either a) or b), either Party may apply to the Chair of the Alberta Labour Relations Board for the appointment of the arbitrator/chair.
- 18.02.02 The Parties may agree in writing to appoint one (1) person to serve as an arbitration panel as an alternative to a three-person panel.
- 18.02.03 The arbitration panel will review submissions, conduct hearings and render a decision that is final and binding on the Parties.
- 18.02.04 The decision of an arbitration panel constituted to resolve a grievance will not amend the terms of the Collective Agreement.
- 18.02.05 An arbitration panel constituted to resolve a collective bargaining dispute will not by its decision amend terms of the Agreement beyond the items referred to it by the Parties for resolution.
- 18.02.06 Hearings before the arbitration panel are private and confidential.
- 18.02.07 No person will be appointed as an arbitrator if the person is directly affected by the dispute, or if that person has been involved in an attempt to settle the dispute.
- 18.02.08 The arbitrator will confine their decision to the grievance submitted.
- 18.02.09 The arbitrator will not substitute their judgment for that of the Employer, or any officer of the University acting on behalf of the Employer, where the exercise of such judgment is not specifically limited by the terms of this Agreement.
- 18.02.10 When dealing with grievances concerning disciplinary action, if the arbitrator determines that sufficient grounds for discipline exist, the arbitrator may substitute some lesser disciplinary action specified in Article 16 that the arbitrator deems just and reasonable in the circumstances.
- 18.02.11 The arbitration panel will not be bound by rules of evidence. Unless limited by this Agreement, the panel may establish procedures for the orderly conduct of the arbitration. Procedural rulings may be made by the panel chair but are subject to reversal by a majority vote of the arbitration panel.

18.02.12 The decision of the majority of members of the three-person arbitration panel will be the decision of the panel. If no majority exists, the decision of the chair will be the decision of the panel.

18.02.13 The costs of the arbitration panel chair will be shared equally by the Parties.

18.03 Time limits may be altered by mutual agreement of the Parties.

ARTICLE 19: LEGISLATION AND THE COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

19.01 Where this Agreement confers a right or benefit which is superior to that provided by a statute passed by the Government of Canada or the Government of Alberta, such superior right or benefit will prevail.

19.02 In the event that any statute passed by the Government of Canada or the Government of Alberta renders null and void, or alters any provision of this Agreement, the Parties agree to address the effect of such change via a Letter of Understanding.

ARTICLE 20: NO STRIKES OR LOCKOUTS

20.01 The Union agrees that there will be no strike during the term of this Agreement.

20.02 The Employer agrees that there will be no lockout during the term of this Agreement.

20.03 PDS Employees will not be required to perform duties beyond their normal responsibilities as a result of any labour dispute.

ARTICLE 21: COLLECTIVE BARGAINING

21.01 Notice to Commence Collective Bargaining

(a) Either Party may give the other notice in writing of its intention to commence bargaining with a view to striking a new Agreement not less than sixty (60) nor more than one hundred and twenty (120) calendar days prior to the expiry date of this Agreement. The notice will include the names of the bargaining team members. The other Party will acknowledge receipt of the notice within ten (10) work days, including the names of their bargaining team.

(b) Any notice required will be deemed to have been sufficiently given or served if personally delivered or emailed. Where notice is emailed to the appropriate Party, it is deemed to have been received within one (1) day of the date of sending.

(c) Notice for the purpose of this Agreement will be addressed in the case of the Employer, to the Provost, or in the case of the Union, to the Vice-President (Internal) of the Union.

Prior to the meeting to exchange written proposals, the chairs of the negotiating teams will meet to discuss and confirm procedures for upcoming negotiations, including the format of proposals, the scheduling of negotiating sessions, the collection and exchange of relevant information, and other procedural matters the chairs believe are needed to facilitate effective, efficient and constructive bargaining.

- (d) At the first meeting to begin negotiations, between the Parties following such notice, the Parties will simultaneously exchange their respective total proposal, whereupon neither Party will table any further new and unrelated proposal except by mutual agreement. Notwithstanding the above, the Parties may, by mutual agreement, adopt a different procedure.

21.02 The negotiating teams will bargain in good faith on behalf of the Parties in an effort to conclude a Memorandum of Agreement describing the terms of a new Agreement.

21.03 A Memorandum of Agreement concluded by the negotiating teams will be submitted to the Employer and the Union for ratification.

21.04 If a settlement is reached but not ratified by one or both Parties, collective bargaining shall resume in an effort to achieve a settlement of unresolved bargaining issues. In such a case, the Parties shall continue to bargain collectively in good faith and make every reasonable effort to enter into a collective agreement.
